RE: File No. EB-09-TC-421

Dear Correspondent:

This is an official CITATION, issued pursuant to section 503(b)(5) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the Act), 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(5), for violations of the Act and the Federal Communications Commission's rules that govern telephone solicitations and unsolicited advertisements.<sup>1</sup> As explained below, you may appeal this citation. In addition, future violations of the Act or Commission's rules in this regard may subject you and your company to monetary forfeitures.<sup>2</sup>

Attached is a consumer complaint regarding autodialed, prerecorded<sup>3</sup>, or artificial voice messages that your company, acting under your direction, has delivered to an emergency telephone line, a telephone line of a guest or patient room at a health care facility, or a telephone number assigned to a paging service, cellular telephone service or any service for which the called party is charged for the call. These complaints indicate that you and your company have violated section 227(b)(1)(A) of the Act and section 64.1200(a)(1) of the Commission's rules. See 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(a)(1).

<sup>1</sup> 47 U.S.C. § 227; 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200. A copy of these provisions is enclosed for your convenience. Section 227 was added to the Communications Act by the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991 and is most commonly known as the TCPA. The TCPA and the Commission's parallel rules restrict a variety of practices that are associated with telephone solicitation and use of the telephone network to deliver unsolicited advertisements, including prerecorded messages to residential telephone lines.

<sup>2</sup> We have attached one complaint at issue in this citation. Within the complaint is the telephone number 812-961-3774, which your business utilized during the time period at issue.

<sup>3</sup> In cases where the complaint form indicates that the type of call is "P", the consumer has selected "prerecorded" as the type of call.

Under Section 227(b)(1)(A) of the Act and section 64.1200(a)(1) of the Commission's rules, it is unlawful for any person within the United States, or any person outside the United States if the recipient is within the United States to initiate calls using an automatic telephone dialing system<sup>4</sup> or an artificial or prerecorded voice to (1) any emergency telephone line, (2) the telephone line of any guest or patient room at a health care facility, or (3) any telephone number assigned to a paging service, cellular telephone service or any service for which the called party is charged for the call.<sup>5</sup> The provisions provide exceptions when the call is made (1) for emergency purposes, or (2) with the prior express consent of the called party.<sup>6</sup>

If, after receipt of this citation, you or your company violate the Communications Act or the Commission's rules in any manner described herein, the Commission may impose monetary forfeitures not to exceed $11,000 for each such violation or each day of a continuing violation occurring before September 2, 2008, and $16,000 for each such violation or each day of a continuing violation occurring on or after September 2, 2008.<sup>7</sup>

You may respond to this citation within 30 days from the date of this letter either through (1) a personal interview at the Commission's Field Office nearest to your place of business, or (2) a written statement. You may use this response to appeal this citation. For example, you may claim that you can document that you had an established business relationship with the called party at the time of the call or that you are a tax-exempt nonprofit organization. In addition, your response should specify the actions that you are taking to ensure that you do not violate the Commission's rules governing prerecorded messages, as described above.

You may schedule a personal interview at the nearest Commission field office. These offices are located in: Atlanta, GA; Boston, MA; Chicago, IL; Columbia, MD; Dallas, TX; Denver, CO; Detroit, MI; Kansas City, MO; Los Angeles, CA; New Orleans, LA; New York, NY; Philadelphia, PA; San Diego, CA; San Francisco, CA; Seattle, WA; and Tampa, FL. Please call Al McCloud at 202-418-2499 if you wish to schedule a personal interview. You should schedule any interview to take place within 30 days of the date of this letter. You should send any written statement within 30 days of the date of this letter to:
