STATEMENT OF COMMISSIONER ROBERT M. McDOWELL REGARDING CORRECTION TO MAY 4, 2012 EDITION OF *COMMUNICATIONS DAILY

The May 4, 2012 edition of Communications Daily incorrectly attributed the following quote to Commissioner McDowell:

McDowell said NAB “seems to have recognized that opening up unused TV channels for innovative broadband uses, without disturbing existing broadcast operations, is the best result for the public. It's a far better outcome than broadcasters losing even more channels in an auction to benefit Verizon and AT&T.”

Communications Daily will run a correction in this evening's edition.

Commissioner McDowell continues to believe that the Commission should not exclude any specific companies from participating in the upcoming incentive auctions, as Congress clearly intended.
