FCC COMMISSIONER JESSICA ROSENWORCEL ON TODAY'S EXECUTIVE ORDER FACILITATING BROADBAND DEPLOYMENT

Washington, D.C.—In response to the release of the Executive Order to Accelerate Broadband Infrastructure Deployment by President Barack Obama, FCC Commissioner Jessica Rosenworcel stated:

“Today’s Executive Order will help bring the power of broadband to every corner of this country. These are the networks that are an essential part of our global competitiveness in the digital age. Access to these networks means opportunity, means jobs, and means innovation. The initiatives announced today will speed deployment of broadband infrastructure through nearly 30 percent of all land in the United States and will foster the next generation of applications that will support education, healthcare, energy, and manufacturing. It’s an exciting effort that has my full and enthusiastic support.”
