FCC COMMISSIONER JESSICA ROSENWORCEL ANNOUNCES NEW STAFF

Washington, D.C.—FCC Commissioner Jessica Rosenworcel today announced the appointment of David Goldman as Senior Legal Advisor, with primary responsibility for wireless, international, and public safety issues.

David Goldman joins the Office of Commissioner Jessica Rosenworcel from the United States Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation, where he served on detail as Counsel to the Subcommittee on Communications, Technology, and the Internet. Before working on Capitol Hill, Mr. Goldman served at the Commission as Policy Advisor to the Chief of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau. He joined the agency in the Honors Attorney program as an Attorney Advisor in the Spectrum Competition and Policy Division of the Wireless Telecommunications Bureau. Prior to his time at the Commission, he served as Staff Law Clerk at the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit in Chicago. He also previously worked as an associate at Hughes Hubbard & Reed in New York. Mr. Goldman has served as a Teaching Assistant at Georgetown University Law Center and as Adjunct Professor of Advocacy at Loyola University Chicago School of Law. He is a graduate of the University of Florida and the University of Pennsylvania School of Law.
