STATEMENT FROM FCC CHAIRMAN JULIUS GENACHOWSKI ON SENATOR ROCKEFELLER RETIREMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Washington, D.C. – The following statement is attributable to FCC Chairman Julius Genachowski:

“During his 30 years in the Senate, Chairman Rockefeller has been a strong leader for the people of West Virginia and all consumers, ensuring that schoolchildren everywhere have access to the Internet through the E-Rate program and establishing the nationwide public safety communications network called for by the 9/11 Commission. Chairman Rockefeller’s fierce advocacy for consumers and unwavering commitment to advancing the public interest have improved the lives of countless Americans. I look forward to continuing to work with him as he completes his term.”
