FCC COMMISSIONER O'RIELLY NAMES SUSAN FISENNE AS CONFIDENTIAL ASSISTANT

Washington, D.C. – Commissioner Michael O’Rielly today announced the naming of Susan Fisenne as his Confidential Assistant.

“Susan’s organizational skills, knowledge of the inner-workings of the Commission, and ability to stay calm under pressure have been invaluable to me during my first months at the Commission. I am delighted that she has agreed to join my office,” said Commissioner O’Rielly.

Ms. Fisenne has worked at the Federal Communications Commission since 2005. Most recently, she served as a Consumer Education and Outreach Specialist in the Consumer and Government Affairs Bureau. She also previously worked as a Confidential Assistant to former FCC Commissioner Deborah Taylor Tate.
