Andrew Woelfling Appointed Deputy Director of the FCC's Office of Legislative Affairs

Washington, D.C. – Andrew Woelfling, a top aide to Rep. John D. Dingell, has been appointed as Deputy Director of the FCC's Office of Legislative Affairs (OLA). His appointment becomes effective on June 30.

Said OLA Director Sara Morris, "Andrew's firm grasp of communications and consumer protection issues along with his invaluable experience in congressional affairs will help ensure good communications between the FCC and Capitol Hill."

Mr. Woelfling currently serves as Rep. Dingell's Deputy Chief of Staff and Legislative Director. His major areas of legislative and policy focus have included consumer protection, the upcoming 600 MHz broadcast incentive auction, and federal spectrum policy.

Prior to working for Rep. Dingell, Mr. Woelfling was a professional staff member on the House Energy and Commerce Subcommittee on Commerce, Trade, and Consumer Protection, chaired by Rep. Bobby Rush. He also worked at the Motor and Equipment Manufacturers Association and DaimlerChrysler in each organization's government affairs divisions.
