

General Information Request
Regarding the AT&T/Kaplan Transaction
Questions for Kaplan
WT Docket No. 14-167
October 29, 2014

1. Explain in detail the decision made by Kaplan to assign the Cellular B Block and Lower 700 MHz C Block spectrum that is the subject of this application to AT&T, including any attempts made to enter into a sale of this spectrum or alternative arrangements with parties other than AT&T.

2. On page 5 of the Public Interest Statement, the Applicants claim that “Kaplan will continue to provide service to its subscribers, with no change in the terms and conditions of service, over an MVNO platform that operates in the Louisiana 5 – Beauregard CMA.” The Applicants further state that “Kaplan is in the process of transitioning its subscribers to this platform.” For this CMA, provide:
 - a. A detailed discussion of Kaplan’s planned pre-closing transition of its subscribers to this platform, including a discussion of how Kaplan customers will be notified of the transition.

 - b. Identify the number of Lifeline customers, if any, and explain Kaplan’s plans for these customers.

 - c. Provide all documents relied on in preparing the responses for 2(a) – 2(b).

Definitions

In this Information and Document Request, the following terms shall have the following meanings (such meanings to be equally applicable to both the singular and plural forms of the terms defined):

1. The terms “Company” or “Kaplan” mean Kaplan Telephone Company, Inc., its parents, predecessors, divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates, partnerships, and joint ventures, and all directors, officers, employees, agents, and representatives of the foregoing. The terms “parents,” “subsidiary,” “affiliate,” and “joint venture” refer to any person in which there is partial (10 percent or more) or total ownership or control between the company and any other person.
2. The term “AT&T” means AT&T, Inc., its parents, predecessors, divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates, partnerships, and joint ventures, and all directors, officers, employees, agents, and representatives of the foregoing. The terms “parents,” “subsidiary,” “affiliate,” and “joint venture” refer to any person in which there is partial (10 percent or more) or total ownership or control between the company and any other person.
3. The terms “and” and “or” have both conjunctive and disjunctive meanings.
4. The word “any” shall be construed to include the word “all,” and the word “all” shall be construed to include the word “any.” The word “each” shall be construed to include the word “every,” and the word “every” shall be construed to include the word “each.” All words used in the singular should be construed to include the plural, and all words used in the plural should be construed to include the singular.
5. The term “Applicants” means AT&T and Kaplan, collectively.
6. The term “Application” means the application submitted by AT&T and Kaplan on August 19, 2014, with the file number for the wireless radio services listed as 0006423784.
7. The term “CMA” means Cellular Market Area.
8. The term “competitor” includes any actual or potential competition from any partnership, corporation (including a business trust), joint stock company, trust, unincorporated association, joint venture, limited liability company, or other entity in any relevant area for any relevant product.
9. The term “discussing” when used to refer to documents means analyzing, constituting, summarizing, reporting on, considering, recommending, setting forth, or describing a subject. Documents that contain reports, studies, forecasts, analyses, plans, proposals, evaluations, recommendations, directives, procedures, policies, or guidelines regarding a subject should be treated as documents that discuss the subject. However, documents that merely mention or refer to a subject without further elaboration should not be treated as documents that discuss that subject.
10. The term “documents” means all computer files and written, recorded, and graphic materials of every kind in the possession, custody, or control of the Company. The term “documents” includes without limitation drafts of documents, copies of documents that are not identical duplicates of the originals, and copies of documents the originals of which are not in the possession, custody, or control of the Company. The term “documents” includes, without limitation, materials of every kind in the possession, custody, or control of the Company whether created internally or externally. In addition, the term “documents” includes without limitation any amendments, side letters, appendices, or attachments. The term “computer files” includes without limitation information stored in, or accessible through, computer or other information retrieval systems. Thus, the Company should produce documents that exist in machine-readable form, including documents stored in personal computers, portable computers, workstations, minicomputers, mainframes, servers, backup disks and tapes and archive disks and tapes, and other forms of offline storage, whether on or off the Company’s premises. Electronic mail messages should also be provided, even if only available on backup or archive tapes or disks. Computer files shall be printed and produced in hard copy or produced in machine-readable form (provided that Commission staff determine prior to submission that it would be in a format that allows the Commission to use the computer files), together with instruction and all other materials necessary to use or interpret the data. Unless otherwise specified, the term “documents” excludes bills of lading, invoices, purchase orders, customs declarations, and other similar documents of a purely transactional nature and also excludes architectural plans and engineering blueprints. Where more than one identical copy of a requested document exists, the Company shall only submit one representative copy.

11. The term “EDGE” means Enhanced Data rates for GSM Evolution technology.
12. The term “EvDO” or “EvDO Rev. A” means Evolution-Data Optimized or Evolution-Data Optimized Revolution A. technology.
13. The term “GSM” means Global System for Mobile Communications technology.

15. The term “identify,” when used with reference to a document, means to state the date, author, addressee, type of document (e.g., the types of document, as described above), a brief description of the subject matter, its present or last known location, and its custodian, who must also be identified.
16. The term “including” shall be construed as including, but not limited to, and indicates examples for the Applicants to address. The term should not be construed as to limit the response to only those examples listed.
17. The term “LTE” means Long Term Evolution technology.
18. The term “mobile wireless application,” also referred to as “application software” or “app,” means a computer system that enables one or more function on a mobile wireless device running a mobile operating system (e.g., Android, iOS).
19. The term “mobile wireless telephone number,” means the 10-digit telephone number assigned to an end-user to access mobile wireless services.
20. The term “mobile wireless data services” means any data communications service using radio transmission between mobile or fixed stations and a network providing communication of packet data information, including but not limited to, broadband data, video, remote file access, status reporting, facsimile, and internet/intranet access. Mobile wireless data services include non-interconnected Voice over IP but exclude mobile wireless voice and text services, as defined herein.

21. The term “mobile wireless services” includes mobile wireless voice services, mobile wireless text services, mobile wireless data services, and mobile wireless applications.
22. The term “mobile wireless text services” means any communications service using radio transmission between mobile or fixed stations and a network providing communication of numeric or alphanumeric messages, such as multi-media messaging, short messaging, and short codes. Mobile wireless text services exclude e-mails.
23. The term “mobile wireless voice services” means interconnected voice communications services provided using radio transmission between mobile or fixed stations on a wireless basis to customers, other than fixed wireless services. Mobile wireless voice services include interconnected Voice over IP.
24. The term “Person” includes the Company, and means any individual, partnership, corporation (including a business trust), joint stock company, trust, unincorporated association, joint venture, limited liability company or other entity, or a government or any political subdivision or agency thereof.

Instructions

1. Unless otherwise specified, all Information and Document Requests cover the period from September 1, 2013 through September 30, 2014.
2. Corporations and other entities, including affiliated or subsidiary entities, shall be identified by the Central Index Key (“CIK”) assigned by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). A unique identifier should be used for each entity that has not been assigned a CIK by the SEC.
3. Contact Commission staff to discuss an acceptable format for the submission of all documents and data.
4. Each requested document shall be submitted in its entirety, even if only a portion of that document is responsive to a request made herein. This means that the document shall not be edited, cut, or expunged, and shall include all appendices, tables, or other attachments, and all other documents referred to in the document or attachments. All written materials necessary to understand any document responsive to these requests shall also be submitted. Provide final versions of each document; however, if a final version does not exist, provide one copy of the latest draft of the document.
5. Those documents written in a language other than English must be translated into English; automated or machine translations are not permitted. Submit the foreign language document, with the English translation attached thereto.
6. Unless otherwise specified, provide data and interrogatory responses separately for prepaid, post-paid, wholesale, and all mobile wireless services. The Company should provide a separate response for interrogatory, data, and documents (i.e., please do not submit the Company’s interrogatory and data responses on the same discs).
7. Data provided in response to this Request should include a list of all parameters/assumptions on which the data are based.
8. Unless otherwise agreed to by the Commission, requests for the production of documents (and any particular type of document) require the production of all responsive documents in the possession, custody, or control of the Company.
9. Documents must be uniquely and sequentially numbered across the entire production. For each document or statement submitted in response to the requests, indicate, by number and subsection, the request to which it is responsive and, for documents, identify the Person(s) from whose files the document was retrieved (i.e., custodian). Group submitted materials according to the request number to which they are responsive and then, within each of those request-number groupings, by the appropriate custodian.
10. If search terms were used to conduct all or any part of a search conducted in response to this Information Request, provide a list of search terms used, along with a glossary of industry and company terminology. In addition, describe the search methodologies and the applications used to execute the search.
11. The specific requests made herein are continuing in nature. The Company is required to produce in the future any and all documents and information that are responsive to the requests made herein but not initially produced at the time, date, and place specified herein. In this regard, the Company must supplement its responses (a) if the Company learns that, in some material respect, the documents and information initially disclosed were incomplete or incorrect or (b) if additional responsive documents or information are acquired by or become known to the Company after the initial production.

12. Any documents that are withheld in whole or in part from production based on a claim of privilege shall be assigned document control numbers (with unique consecutive numbers for each page of each document).

13. For each Document identified on the Company privilege log:

- 1) Provide the document control number(s);
- 2) Identify all authors of the document;
- 3) Identify all addressees of the document;
- 4) Identify all recipients of the document or of any copies of the document, to the extent not included among the document's addressees;
- 5) Provide the date of the document;
- 6) Provide a description of the subject matter of the document;
- 7) State the nature or type of the privilege that the Company is asserting for the document (e.g., "attorney-client privilege");
- 8) Provide the number(s) of the Request to which the document is responsive;
- 9) Provide the document control number(s) of any attachments to the document, regardless of whether any privilege is being asserted for such attachment(s); and
- 10) State whether the document has been produced in redacted form, and include the range of Document ID labels for those produced documents.

14. The Company's privilege log shall also conform with all of the following requirements:

- 1) Provide a separate legend identifying each author, addressee, and recipient identified on the Company's privilege log.
- 2) Identify on the privilege log, and denote with an asterisk, all attorneys acting in a legal capacity with respect to the withheld document or communication.
- 3) The description of the subject matter of each document shall describe the nature of the document in a manner that, though not revealing information that is itself privileged, provides sufficiently detailed information to enable the Commission to assess the applicability of the privilege claimed.
- 4) For each document withheld under a claim that it constitutes or contains attorney work product, also state whether the Company asserts that the document was prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial and, if so, specify the anticipated litigation or trial upon which the assertion is based.
- 5) Produce all nonprivileged portions of any responsive document (including nonprivileged or redactable attachments) for which a claim of privilege is asserted, except where the only nonprivileged information in the document has already been produced. Note where any redactions in the document have been made.
- 6) The privilege log shall be produced in both hardcopy and electronic form, the electronic form of which shall be both searchable and sortable.
- 7) Documents sent solely between counsel, including in-house counsel acting solely in a legal capacity, and documents authored by the Company's outside counsel that were not directly or indirectly furnished to any third party, such as internal law firm memoranda, may be omitted from the privilege log. However, any attachments to such documents must be included on the privilege log (if a privilege is applicable to such materials), unless such attachments are addressed and sent solely to counsel.
