COMMISSIONER ROSENWORCEL ANNOUNCES DEPARTURE OF VALERY GALASSO

WASHINGTON, November 19, 2015 — Commissioner Jessica Rosenworcel announced today that her Policy Advisor, Valery Galasso, is departing her office at the Federal Communications Commission.

Commissioner Rosenworcel said of the announcement: “Valery has been a trusted advisor who has been by my side since the very earliest days in my office. I have benefited immeasurably from her smarts and advice, as has the Commission as a whole. She is a terrific public servant, policy whiz, and seasoned strategist. She does it all—with a great mix of discipline, good judgment, and grace. I am proud to have worked with her and even more grateful to be able to call her a friend. I wish her well as she relocates to New York. The Big Apple is lucky to have her because wherever she goes, Valery will be a star.”
