Dear Mignon,

I'm so sorry I can't be in DC today to join this celebration. (I suspect you'll miss - as I do - the ability to set our own schedule!)

Here are some other things I'm certain you'll miss:

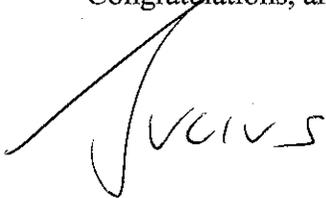

- A truly exceptional set of colleagues and staff at the FCC.
- The fascinating, exciting and important set of issues the FCC addresses every day.
- The opportunity and privilege to make a difference for our country, and in the lives of every American.

You've done so much to serve the public interest. You've fought so hard for all people, especially those too easily forgotten or left behind. You've built a truly exceptional record of success, and you've done it with honor and integrity.

You have so much to be proud of.

I feel very fortunate that fate allowed us to serve together at the FCC for four years. And I feel lucky to call you a real friend.

Congratulations, and thank you very much for your service.
