STATEMENT OF COMMISSIONER BRENDAN CARR

WASHINGTON, June 4, 2018—FCC Commissioner Brendan Carr released the following statement regarding the White House’s nomination of Geoffrey Starks to serve as an FCC Commissioner:

“I want to extend my congratulations to Geoffrey Starks on his nomination by the White House to serve on the Commission. Mr. Starks’ career evidences a longstanding commitment to public service, including at both the Department of Justice and as a staffer in the FCC’s Enforcement Bureau. I would welcome the chance to work together on policies that will protect consumers and promote the interests of all Americans.”
