Rep. Rob Wittman (VA): “This is great news from @AjitPaiFCC. I am eager for these #RDOF funds to come to Virginia, and I am hopeful that the FCC will strongly consider the locations within #VA01 that need these funds to help close the digital divide & strengthen #rural America.” (Tweet, 1/17/20)

Governor Doug Burgum (ND): “The State of North Dakota has felt the impact of your accomplishments during your time as Chairman and, before that, an advocate for wise and targeted spending to ensure broadband infrastructure to our rural residents. North Dakota has benefited immensely and is truly grateful. ... North Dakota is excited about the recently announced Rural Digital Opportunity Fund (RDOF) and its potential to narrow the urban-rural digital divide.” (Letter, 1/24/20)

Governor Laura Kelly (KS): “Here in Kansas, we have many areas without adequate access to quality, affordable broadband services. Reliable broadband access is key to sustaining and growing rural Kansas. It will improve long-term quality of life for all Kansans and ensure that our state continues to compete in the modern economy. With that in mind, I commend your commitment to the expansion of broadband through the recently announced Rural Digital Opportunity Fund (RDOF).” (Letter, 1/23/20)

Governor Kim Reynolds (IA): “As the Governor of Iowa, I see first-hand the need for access to reliable broadband networks in our rural communities. ... This support is crucial, and I appreciate your attention to this matter.” (Letter, 1/23/20)
