ERRATUM

Released: January 5, 2021

By the Chief, Media Bureau:

On December 23, 2020, the Media Bureau released a Memorandum Opinion and Order and Declaratory Ruling, DA 20-1535, in the above caption proceeding. This Erratum amends that document as indicated below.

1. In paragraph 33, the second sentence is corrected to read as follows:

“Therefore, this Declaratory Ruling grants specific approval for the following 27 individuals and entities to hold up to and including the following percentages of the equity and voting interest of Univision.”
2. In paragraph 33, four individuals are added at the end of the list to read as follows:
  - Thomas de Canniere - <1% equity and 30% voting interest
  - Jonathan Laloum - <1% equity and 30% voting interest
  - Michele Sheggia - <1% equity and 30% voting interest
  - James Redmayne - <1% equity and 30% voting interest.
3. Footnote 3 is corrected to read as follows:

“<sup>3</sup> Petition for Declaratory Ruling of Univision Holdings, Inc., MB Docket No. 20-122 (filed Mar. 25, 2020) (Petition). Although five parties – Univision, Searchlight, ForgeLight Univision Holdings, LLC, (ForgeLight Holdings), Multimedia Telecom, S.A. de C.V. (Multimedia Telecom), and Liberty Global Ventures Limited (f/k/a Liberty Global Ventures Ltd.) (Liberty Global) – all participated in the Petition, only Univision as the licensee has standing to file. See 47 CFR § 1.5001. These parties amended that petition on April 27, 2020, and Searchlight and ForgeLight Holdings filed a supplement updating that amendment on August 28, 2020 (Petition Supplement). The Petition was further supplemented on September 21, 2020. An update to the name of Liberty Global Incorporated was filed on May 11, 2020.”
