SIMINGTON TALKS TELECOM WITH FCBA PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, April 26, 2020—FCC Commissioner Nathan Simington had a wide-ranging discussion with Natalie Roisman, President of the Federal Communications Bar Association (FCBA-The Tech Bar) and Director of Social Responsibility at Wilkinson Barker Knauer, LLP, on Friday, April 23, 2021.

Commissioner Simington and Ms. Roisman discussed a wide range of topics, touching on spectrum policy, infrastructure, media, device security, regulatory modernization, and succeeding in a telecom industry career. Commissioner Simington remarked.

“I am so grateful to the FCBA for hosting me for a fireside chat, and to Ms. Roisman for her thoughtful questions. I am further grateful to the technical team for putting the event together. It was an honor and a privilege to have the opportunity to speak before the FCBA, and I look forward to being offered the opportunity again in the future.”
