The Honorable Jessica Rosenworcel
Chairwoman
Federal Communications Commission
45 L Street, N.E.
Washington, D.C. 20554

Dear Chairwoman Rosenworcel:

The Subcommittee on Economic and Consumer Policy is writing to request further information about the ongoing efforts of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) to address spam text messages.

On September 16, 2021, your staff briefed Subcommittee staff on FCC's work to combat spam robotexts. Your staff discussed ongoing enforcement efforts, noting, "We are keenly aware of the problem and are committed to taking enforcement action against violators every time we find a case and have the evidence to do so." Your staff confirmed that robotexts are a "growing problem" and that FCC wants to "clamp down on" them.¹

The Subcommittee shares these concerns and goals. I want the American people to know about the important work that FCC is doing to protect them from spam robotexts. I also want to ensure that text scam artists face serious consequences for harming consumers.

To assist the Subcommittee in its review of this matter, by December 3, 2021, please provide documents sufficient to show the following information listed by month from July 2021 through October 2021:

1. Number of new investigations opened related to spam robotexts;
2. Number of spam robotext investigations closed;
3. For each closed investigation, the final disposition, including the reasons for closure (e.g., unable to obtain evidence against overseas violator), and all actions taken against the violator (e.g., fines assessed and collected); and

¹ Briefing by Federal Communications Commission Staff to Majority Staff, Subcommittee on Economic and Consumer Policy (Sept. 16, 2021).

4. The number of FCC employees working on robotext enforcement, and the percentage of each employee's time spent on robotext enforcement work.

Your first submission should include information for the months July 2021 through October 2021. In addition, for each subsequent month (beginning with November 2021), please provide the information requested in Requests 1–4, above, by the 15th day of the following month (e.g., the November 2021 information will be due December 15, 2021).

The Committee on Oversight and Reform is the principal oversight committee of the House of Representatives and has broad authority to investigate “any matter” at “any time” under House Rule X. An attachment to this letter provides additional instructions for responding to the Committee’s request. If you have any questions regarding this request, please contact Subcommittee staff at (202) 225-5051.

Sincerely,

Raja Krishnamoorthi
Chairman

Subcommittee on Economic and Consumer Policy

Enclosure

cc: The Honorable Michael Cloud, Ranking Member
Subcommittee on Economic and Consumer Policy
