

Media Contact:

Anne Veigle
anne.veigle@fcc.gov

For Immediate Release

NEW CHILD CARE CENTER TELETOTS BY REGGIO'S TREEHOUSE OPENS FOR FEDERAL FAMILIES AND THE PUBLIC

GSA and FCC-Sponsored Child Care Center Opens for Enrollment

WASHINGTON, March 10, 2022—The Federal Communications Commission today announced that TeleTots by Reggio's Treehouse, a private child care center, which is available for all federal employee families and the public, will open its doors on March 21, 2022.

TeleTots is a brand new child care center co-located with the FCC's Headquarters in NoMa, Washington, D.C.; it is jointly sponsored by the FCC and the General Services Administration and operated by Reggio's Treehouse. Reggio's Treehouse is a private child care services provider that also operates child care centers at several Federal Aviation Administration locations, and offers a Reggio Emilia inspired child care program. TeleTots will have both full and part-time enrollment options and daily drop-in care, subject to availability, with programs available for infants through children 6 years of age.

More details about TeleTots by Reggio's Treehouse, including programs, availability (including prior to the grand opening date), hours of operation, tuition, and enrollment can be found at <https://www.reggiostreehouse.com/teletots-by-rth>.

###

Media Relations: (202) 418-0500 / ASL: (844) 432-2275 / Twitter: @FCC / www.fcc.gov

This is an unofficial announcement of Commission action. Release of the full text of a Commission order constitutes official action. See MCI v. FCC, 515 F.2d 385 (D.C. Cir. 1974).