CONGRESSIONAL HISPANIC CAUCUS
117th Congress

June 27, 2022

The Honorable Jessica Rosenworcel
Federal Communications Commission
45 L Street, NE
Washington, DC 20554

Dear Chairwoman Rosenworcel:

We write to support the sale of 18 AM and FM radio stations in Florida, Texas, California, Illinois, Nevada and New York from TelevisaUnivision to Latino Media Network (LMN). This sale will serve the public interest by ensuring quality, bilingual programming for millions of Hispanics across these states.

Latino Media Network is a bipartisan group of owners who have come together to ensure the spiritual, civic and cultural heritage of Hispanic radio continues for future generations. They have voiced a continued commitment to diverse programming and sharing a variety of viewpoints.

Over the last few years, the Congressional Hispanic Caucus (CHC) has been troubled by a rise in targeted mis- and disinformation efforts across Spanish language radio. With this purchase, the public interest is served by ensuring the protection of a myriad of diverse voices across various Hispanic origins and through multiple regions in the United States.

We request you give full and fair consideration of the transfer of ownership application, consistent with applicable law, rules, and regulations. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully,

Raul Ruiz, M.D.
