WIRELINE COMPETITION BUREAU SHORT TERM NETWORK CHANGE NOTIFICATION FILED BY VERIZON NEW ENGLAND INC.

WC Docket No. 22-439 December 9, 2022
Report No. NCD-3570

Re: SHORT TERM NETWORK CHANGE CERTIFICATION RECEIVED

Verizon New England Inc. (Verizon), an incumbent local exchange carrier (LEC), has filed certification that short term public notice of network change(s) has been provided through its publicly accessible Internet site, as required by section 51.329(a)(2) of the rules of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission),[1] together with certification of service on identified interconnecting telephone exchange service providers, as required by section 51.333(a).[2] Upon initial review the filing appears to be complete.[3] Specific network change information can be obtained on the Internet at: https://www.verizon.com/about/terms-conditions/network-disclosures.

The incumbent LEC's certification(s) refer(s) to the change(s) identified below:

| Type of Change(s) | Location of Change(s) | Planned Implementation Date(s) |
|---|---|---|
| Verizon plans to retire and remove the East Greenwich, RI DMS100 switch after it migrates all traffic served by the switch to the Providence, RI Packet End Office (PEO) switch. | Verizon Central Offices for the East Greenwich, RI DMS100 switch located at 59 Church St., East Greenwich, RI 02818 (EGRNRICHDS0) and the Providence, RI PEO switch located at 234 Washington St., Providence, RI 02903 (PRVDRIWAPS0). | On or after January 3, 2023 |

An objection to an incumbent LEC's short term notice may be filed by an information service provider or telecommunications service provider that directly interconnects with the incumbent LEC's network. Such objections must be filed with the Commission, and served on the incumbent LEC, no later than the ninth business day following the release of this Public Notice.[4] The effective implementation date(s) of network changes referenced in short term notices are subject to the FCC public notice period described under section 51.333(b)(1).[5] For purposes of computation of time when filing a petition for reconsideration, application for review, or petition for judicial review of the Commission's decision, the date of "public notice" shall be the later of ten business days after the release date of this Public Notice, or the release date of any further public notice or order announcing final action, as applicable. Should no petitions for reconsideration, applications for review, or petitions for judicial review be timely filed, the proceeding listed in this Public Notice shall be terminated, and the docket will be closed.

Information service providers and telecommunications service providers that directly interconnect with the incumbent LEC's network may file objections, and other interested parties may file comments, regarding this network change notice using the Internet by accessing the ECFS: http://apps.fcc.gov/ecfs. Filers should follow the instructions provided on the Web site for submitting comments. Generally, only one copy of an electronic submission must be filed. In completing the transmittal screen, filers should include their full name, U.S. Postal Service mailing address, and the applicable docket number. Interested parties also may comment on this network change notice by sending an e-mail to NetworkChange@fcc.gov. The subject line of the e-mail must include the correct NCD Report Number or docket number in order for the comments to be considered in conjunction with this proceeding. All information submitted including names and addresses will be publicly available via the web.

Parties who choose to file paper copies must file an original and one copy of each filing. Such filings can be sent by commercial overnight courier, or by first-class or overnight U.S. Postal Service mail.[6] All filings must be addressed to the Commission's Secretary, Office of the Secretary, Federal Communications Commission. Commercial overnight mail (other than U.S. Postal Service Express Mail and Priority Mail) must be sent to 9050 Junction Drive, Annapolis Junction, MD 20701. U.S. Postal Service first-class, Express, and Priority mail must be addressed to 45 L Street, NE, Washington, D.C. 20554.

This proceeding is considered a "permit but disclose" proceeding for purposes of the Commission's ex parte rules.[7] Participants in this proceeding should familiarize themselves with the Commission's ex parte rules. Persons making ex parte presentations must file a copy of any written presentation or a memorandum summarizing any oral presentation within two business days after the presentation (unless a different deadline applicable to the Sunshine period applies). Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentation must (1) list all persons attending or otherwise participating in the meeting at which the ex parte presentation was made, and (2) summarize all data presented and arguments made during the presentation. If the presentation
