WASHINGTON, D.C., May 22, 2023— FCC Commissioner Nathan Simington made the following statement on President Biden’s announcement to nominate Anna Gomez to serve as FCC Commissioner and to re-nominate Geoffrey Starks and Brendan Carr to serve additional five-year terms as Commissioners:

“I offer a heartfelt congratulations to Anna Gomez on her nomination to serve as an FCC Commissioner. She brings a wealth of knowledge and experience with her to the Commission and I look forward to serving with her.

I also congratulate Commissioner Carr on his renomination. His leadership and camaraderie have been a lodestar to me in my role as a Commissioner.

Finally, I would like to profess my congratulations to Commissioner Starks who has led the charge in bridging the digital divide. I have no doubt he will continue to serve in the same capacity in a new term.

I look forward to working to further the public interest with all five of my colleagues in the near future.”
