SIMINGTON APPLAUDS RECEIVERS BILL

WASHINGTON, D.C., MAY 25, 2023— Today, Commissioner Nathan Simington released the following statement in support of the “Spectrum Coexistence Act” introduced by House Communications & Technology Subcommittee Ranking Member Doris Matsui:

“I am delighted to see that Ranking Member Matsui has recognized and championed the importance of ensuring all users can efficiently use vital and increasingly congested spectrum resources. In order for America to maintain and expand its edge in technology leadership, policymakers must ensure that all roadblocks are cleared for ingenuity and technological development.”
