

OFFICE OF CHAIRMAN BRENDAN CARR

Chairman Carr Announces New Legal Advisor

WASHINGTON, August 6, 2026—Today, FCC Chairman Brendan Carr announced the appointment of Keelin Ferris as Legal Advisor in the Office of the Chairman. Following Callie Coker's move into the private sector earlier this summer, Ms. Ferris will join the Office to focus on matters before the FCC's Wireline Competition Bureau, Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau, and Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau.

Chairman Carr issued the following statement:

"The FCC works day in and day out on issues ranging from emergency alerts to protecting consumers from scams callers, from disaster recovery to modernizing our communications networks. Keelin brings her talents and work ethic to the FCC to help us do this critical work for the American people – and it doesn't hurt that she's a graduate of such an esteemed law school. I am happy to welcome her to the great FCC workforce."

Keelin Ferris, Legal Advisor to Chairman Carr. Prior to joining the FCC, Ms. Ferris was an associate at a creditor's rights law firm. She earned her Juris Doctorate from Catholic University of America's Columbus School of Law where she was the Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Law and Technology and obtained a Certificate in Data Privacy and Communications from the Law and Technology Institute. She received her bachelor's degree in political science and data science from American University where she played Division 1 soccer.

###

Media Contact: MediaRelations@fcc.gov / (202) 418-0500
@FCC / www.fcc.gov