THE COMMISSION SEEKS PUBLIC COMMENT IN THE 2004 BIENNIAL REVIEW OF TELECOMMUNICATIONS REGULATIONS

Comment Date: July 12, 2004

Reply Comment Date: August 11, 2004

NOTE: SEPARATE PLEADINGS MUST BE FILED WITH THE APPROPRIATE BUREAU OR OFFICE WITH JURISDICTION OVER THE RULES AS IDENTIFIED IN THE ATTACHMENT. THE CORRESPONDING DOCKET NUMBERS ARE LISTED IN THE ATTACHMENT.

The FCC is in the process of conducting its comprehensive 2004 biennial review of telecommunications regulations pursuant to Section 11 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 161. This section requires the Commission (1) to review biennially its regulations “that apply to the operations or activities of any provider of telecommunications service,” and (2) to “determine whether any such regulation is no longer necessary in the public interest as the result of meaningful economic competition between the providers of such service.” The Commission is directed to repeal or modify any such regulations that it finds are no longer in the public interest.¹

Pursuant to Section 1.430 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 1.430, we seek suggestions from the public as to what rules should be modified or repealed as part of the 2004 biennial review. Submissions by the public should identify with as much specificity as possible the rule or rules that should be modified or repealed, and why the regulations should be modified or repealed. In this regard, parties should discuss how their suggested rule changes satisfy the standard of Section 11 as interpreted by the D.C. Circuit Court in Cellco Partnership. As with the 2002 biennial review, we expect the staff will prepare reports recommending which sections of the rules should be modified or repealed. A list of the rule parts within the purview of each relevant Bureau and Office of the Commission is attached.

In order to facilitate review of all comments, the cover page should denote that it pertains to the Biennial Review 2004, should clearly indicate the Bureau or Office with jurisdiction over the rules addressed in the comments, and should include the appropriate docket number for that Bureau or Office. Parties wishing to comment on rules within the jurisdiction of more than one Bureau or Office should file separate pleadings on rules for each Bureau or Office. Interested parties may file comments on July 12, 2004 and reply comments on August 11, 2004.

Comments may be filed using the Commission's Electronic Comment Filing System ("ECFS") or by filing paper copies. See Electronic Filing of Documents in Rulemaking Proceedings, 63 Fed.Reg. 24121 (1998). Comments filed through the ECFS can be sent as an electronic file via the Internet to <http://www.fcc.gov/cgb/ecfs/>. Generally, only one copy of an electronic submission must be filed. In completing the transmittal screen, commenters should include their full name, U.S. Postal Service mailing address, and the applicable docket or rulemaking number.

Parties may also submit an electronic comment by Internet e-mail. To obtain filing instructions for e-mail comments, commenters should send an e-mail to ecfs@fcc.gov, and should include the following words in the body of the message, "get form." A sample form and directions will be sent in reply. Parties who choose to file by paper must file an original and four copies of each filing. If more than one docket or rulemaking number appears in the caption of this proceeding, commenters must submit two additional copies for each additional docket or rulemaking number.

Filings can be sent by hand or messenger delivery, by commercial overnight courier, or by first-class or overnight U.S. Postal Service mail (although we continue to experience delays in receiving U.S. Postal Service mail).
