By the Commission:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture ("NAL")¹, we find that Mexico Marketing, LLC ("Mexico Marketing")² apparently willfully or repeatedly violated section 227 of the

¹ See 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1). The Commission has the authority under this section of the Act to assess a forfeiture against any person who has "willfully or repeatedly failed to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission under this Act" See also 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(5) (stating that the Commission has the authority under this section of the Act to assess a forfeiture penalty against any person who does not hold a license, permit, certificate or other authorization issued by the Commission or an applicant for any of those listed instrumentalities so long as such person (A) is first issued a citation of the violation charged; (B) is given a reasonable opportunity for a personal interview with an official of the Commission, at the field office of the Commission nearest to the person's place of residence; and (C) subsequently engages in conduct of the type described in the citation).

Communications Act of 1934, as amended (“Act”), and the Commission’s related rules and orders, by delivering at least forty-one unsolicited advertisements to the telephone facsimile machines of at least thirty-one consumers.³ Based on the facts and circumstances surrounding the apparent violation, we find that Mexico Marketing is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $239,500.

II. BACKGROUND

2. Section 227(b)(1)(C) of the Act makes it “unlawful for any person within the United States, or any person outside the United States if the recipient is within the United States . . . to use any telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to send, to a telephone facsimile machine, an unsolicited advertisement.”⁴ The term “unsolicited advertisement” is defined in the Act and the Commission’s rules as “any material advertising the commercial availability or quality of any property, goods, or services which is transmitted to any person without that person’s prior express invitation or permission in writing or otherwise.”⁵ Under the Commission’s rules, an “established business relationship”⁶ exception permits a party to deliver a message to a consumer if the sender has an established business relationship with the recipient and the sender obtained the number of the facsimile machine through the voluntary communication by the recipient, directly to the sender, within the context of the established business relationship, or through a directory, advertisement, or a site on the Internet to which the recipient voluntarily agreed to make available its facsimile number for public distribution.⁷

3. On June 30, 2006, in response to one or more consumer complaints alleging that Mexico Marketing had faxed unsolicited advertisements, the Enforcement Bureau (“Bureau”) issued a citation⁸ to

⁶ An “established business relationship” is defined as a prior or existing relationship formed by a voluntary two-way communication “with or without an exchange of consideration, on the basis of an inquiry, application, purchase or transaction by the business or residential subscriber regarding products or services offered by such person or entity, which relationship has not been previously terminated by either party.” 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(f)(5).

⁷ See 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(C); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(a)(3)(i), (ii).

⁸ Citation from Kurt A. Schroeder, Deputy Chief, Telecommunications Consumers Division, Enforcement Bureau, File No. EB-06-TC-130, issued to Mexico Marketing on June 30, 2006. The Commission staff previously issued a citation for unsolicited facsimile advertising to TravelComm Industries, Inc. on May 19, 2005.

Mexico Marketing, pursuant to section 503(b)(5) of the Act.⁹ The Bureau cited Mexico Marketing for using a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device, to send unsolicited advertisements to a telephone facsimile machine, in violation of section 227 of the Act and the Commission's related rules and orders. The citation, which was served by certified mail, return receipt requested, warned Mexico Marketing that subsequent violations could result in the imposition of monetary forfeitures of up to $11,000 per violation, and included a copy of the consumer complaints that formed the basis of the citation.¹⁰ The citation informed Mexico Marketing that within thirty (30) days of the date of the citation, it could either request an interview with Commission staff, or could provide a written statement responding to the citation. Mexico Marketing did not request an interview or otherwise respond to the citation.¹¹

4. Despite the citation's warning that subsequent violations could result in the imposition of monetary forfeitures, we have received additional consumer complaints indicating that Mexico Marketing continued to engage in such conduct after receiving the citation.¹² We base our action here specifically on the complaints filed by thirty-one consumers establishing that Mexico Marketing continued to send forty-one unsolicited advertisements to telephone facsimile machines after the date of the citation.¹³

5. Section 503(b) of the Act authorizes the Commission to assess a forfeiture of up to $11,000 for each violation of the Act or of any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission under the Act by a non-common carrier or other entity not specifically designated in section 503 of the Act.¹⁴ In exercising such authority, we are to take into account "the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of

¹⁰ Bureau staff mailed the citation to Mexico Marketing, LLC's three Florida addresses: 5895 Carrier Drive, Orlando, FL 32819; P.O. Box 300245, Casselberry, FL 32730; and 322 W. Newell St., Winter Garden, FL 34787. The citation was also sent by regular mail to P.O. Box 300245, Casselberry, FL 32730.

the violation and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.”¹⁵

III. DISCUSSION

A. Violations of the Commission’s Rules Restricting Unsolicited Facsimile Advertisements

6. We find that Mexico Marketing apparently violated section 227 of the Act and the Commission’s related rules and orders by using a telephone facsimile machine, computer, or other device to send at least forty-one unsolicited advertisements to the thirty-one consumers identified in the Appendix. This NAL is based on evidence that the consumers received unsolicited fax advertisements from Mexico Marketing after the Commission’s citation. The facsimile transmissions advertise vacation packages. Further, according to the complaints, the consumers neither had an established business relationship with Mexico Marketing nor gave Mexico Marketing permission to send the facsimile transmissions.¹⁶ The faxes at issue here therefore fall within the definition of an “unsolicited advertisement.”¹⁷ Based on the entire record, including the consumer complaints, we conclude that Mexico Marketing apparently violated section 227 of the Act and the Commission’s related rules and orders by sending forty-one unsolicited advertisements to thirty-one consumers’ facsimile machines.

B. Proposed Forfeiture

7. We find that Mexico Marketing is apparently liable for a forfeiture in the amount of $239,500. Although the Commission’s Forfeiture Policy Statement does not establish a base forfeiture amount for violating the prohibition against using a telephone facsimile machine to send unsolicited advertisements, the Commission has previously considered $4,500 per unsolicited fax advertisement to be an appropriate base amount.¹⁸ We apply that base amount to each of thirty-one of the apparent violations. In addition, where the consumer requests the company to stop sending facsimile messages, and the company continues to send them, the Commission has previously considered $10,000 per unsolicited fax advertisement the appropriate forfeiture for such egregious violations.¹⁹ Here, seven consumers specifically requested that Mexico Marketing cease sending facsimiles. Notwithstanding these requests, Mexico Marketing sent ten additional facsimiles to these consumers. We therefore apply the $10,000 amount to each of these ten apparent violations. Thus, a total forfeiture of $239,500 is proposed. Mexico

Marketing will have the opportunity to submit evidence and arguments in response to this NAL to show that no forfeiture should be imposed or that some lesser amount should be assessed.²⁰

IV. CONCLUSION AND ORDERING CLAUSES
