ORDER

Adopted: June 17, 2016

Released: June 20, 2016

By the Commission:

1. In this Order, we adopt the attached Consent Decree entered into between the Commission and R&F Broadcasting, Inc. (R&F). The Consent Decree resolves issues raised in our review of the above-captioned application for license renewal for station WRFB(TV), Carolina, Puerto Rico (Station), specifically compliance with: (1) the children’s programming requirements set forth in Section 73.671 of the Commission’s Rules (Rules),1 which implements the Children’s Television Act of 1990 (CTA);2 (2) Section 73.3526(e)(11)(i) of the Rules,3 which requires broadcast stations to prepare and place on a quarterly basis in their local public inspection file TV issues/programs lists; (3) Section 73.3526(b)(2) of the Rules, which requires television licensees to upload certain portions of their physical public files to an on-line Commission-hosted website; and (4) Section 73.624(g) of the Rules, which requires the licensee to annually file with the Commission an Ancillary and Supplementary Services Report and pay any required fee.4 A copy of the Consent Decree is attached hereto and incorporated by reference.

2. After reviewing its terms, we find that the public interest would be served by adopting the Consent Decree. We conclude that there are no substantial or material questions of fact regarding R&F’s qualifications to remain a Commission licensee. Although we conclude that the Consent Decree contains appropriate terms and conditions, after reviewing the record before us, we believe that the grant of a short-term renewal is appropriate in order to better ensure the Licensee’s ongoing compliance with the CTA and with Sections 73.3526(e)(11)(i), 73.3526(b)(2) and 73.624(g).5 Accordingly, we grant the renewal application and renew the Station license for a period of two years pursuant to Section 309(k)(2)

1 47 C.F.R. § 73.671.

3 47 C.F.R. §§ 73.3526(b)(2), (e)(11)(i) .

4 47 C.F.R. § 73.624(g).

5 Section 309(k)(1) of the Act states that the Commission shall grant a license renewal application “if it finds, with respect to that station, during the preceding term of its license—(a) the station has served the public interest, convenience, and necessity; (b) there have been no serious violations by the licensee of the Act or Commission rules and regulations; and (c) there have been no other violations by the licensee of the Act or Commission rules or regulations which, taken together, would constitute a pattern of abuse.” 47 U.S.C. § 309(k)(1). Section 309(k)(2) of the Act states, however, that if the licensee fails to meet this three-part standard, the Commission may deny the application—after notice and comment, and opportunity for hearing under Section 309(e) of the Act—“or grant the application on terms and conditions as are appropriate, including renewal for a term less than the maximum otherwise permitted” 47 U.S.C. § 309(k)(2).

of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act). As a result, we need not determine whether R&F committed “serious violations” of our rules or violations that constituted a “pattern of abuse” for purposes of Section 309(k)(1).⁶

3. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Sections 4(i) of the Act,⁷ the Consent Decree attached to this Order IS ADOPTED.

4. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 309(k)(2) of the Act,⁸ the application to renew the broadcast license of station WRFB(TV), Carolina, Puerto Rico, File No. BRCDT-20121001AGN, IS GRANTED and that license is renewed for a period of two years following release of this Order.

5. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the investigation by the Commission into the matters discussed above and in connection with this station IS TERMINATED.

6. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a copy of this Order and Consent Decree shall be sent by both First Class Mail and Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, to R&F’s counsel, Davina Sashkin, Esq., Fletcher, Heald & Hildreth, 1300 N. 17th Street, Suite 1100, Arlington, Virginia 22209.

II. BACKGROUND

3. On October 1, 2012, the Licensee timely filed its license renewal application (FCC Form 303-S) for the Station.³ Following a series of informal inquiries from staff, the Licensee has since amended its application on four separate occasions, most recently on July 31, 2013, in order to address requests by staff related to R&F’s compliance with the CTA and Sections 73.671, 73.3526 and 73.624(g) of the Rules. Specifically, in Exhibit 24 of the License Renewal Application, the Licensee states that, between the third quarter of 2009 and “early 2011,” the Station aired its children’s programming beginning at 6:00 a.m. instead of 7:00 a.m.⁴ While the Licensee admits to airing only two hours of Core Programming from the third quarter of 2009 through fourth quarter of 2011, during those six calendar quarters, it contends that it has aired a package of programming that is at least equivalent to airing three hours of children’s programming per week, albeit not within the time period specified in Section 73.671(c)(2).⁵ In addition, the Licensee states that since early 2011 it has been airing a total of four hours of Core Programming per week, which is in excess of the minimum Core Programming obligation.

4. Under the CTA, as implemented by Section 73.671 of the Rules, a broadcast television licensee is required “to serve, over the term of its license, the educational and informational needs of children through both the licensee’s overall programming and programming specifically designed to serve such needs.”⁶ Programming specifically designed to serve the educational and informational needs of children is defined by the Rules as “Core Programming.”⁷ In the 1996 Children’s Television Order revising our rules and policies governing children’s programming, the Commission established a license renewal application processing guideline of at least three hours of Core Programming per week.⁸ The ⁴ The Station modified its children’s programming schedule starting January 15, 2011. As a result, for first quarter 2011 the Station aired an average of 3.69 hours of Core Programming per week.

⁸ Policies and Rules Concerning Children’s Television Programming: Revision of Programming Policies for Television Broadcast Stations, Report and Order, 11 FCC Rcd 10660, 10718 (1996) (1996 Children’s Television Order). The Commission established rules setting forth seven criteria for evaluating whether a program qualifies as CORE programming: (1) the program has serving the educational and informational needs of children ages 16 and under as a significant purpose; (2) the program is aired between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 10:00 p.m.; (3) the program is a regularly-scheduled weekly program; (4) the program is at least 30 minutes in length; (5) the program is identified as being specifically designed to educate and inform children through the on-screen display of the E/I symbol throughout the program; (6) the educational objective and the target child audience are specified in writing in the licensee’s Children’s Television Programming Report; and (7) instructions for listing the program as educational/ informational, including an indication of the age group for which the program is intended, are provided by the licensee to publishers of program guides. 1996 Children’s Television Order, 11 FCC Rcd at 10696; 47 C.F.R. § 73.671(c).

Rules provide that the Media Bureau staff shall approve the CTA portion of any license renewal application where the licensee demonstrates that it has aired an average of at least three hours per week of Core Programming, as averaged over a six-month period.⁹ A licensee will also be deemed to have satisfied this obligation and be eligible for staff approval if it demonstrates that it has aired a package of different types of educational and informational programming that, while containing somewhat less than three hours per week of Core Programming, demonstrates a level of commitment to educating and informing children at least equivalent to airing three hours per week of Core Programming.¹⁰ The renewal applications of licensees that do not meet these processing guidelines are referred to the Commission, where the licensees have a full opportunity to demonstrate compliance with the CTA.¹¹

5. In addition, the Licensee states that it: (1) failed to prepare and/or place into the Station's physical local public inspection file (public file) and online electronic public file (e-pif) at appropriate times numerous TV issues/programs lists, as required by Section 73.3526(e)(11)(i) and 73.3526(b)(2) of the Rules;¹² and (2) on three occasions failed to timely file its Ancillary and Supplementary Services Reports.¹³ In particular, the Licensee admits in Exhibit 20 of the License Renewal Application that its TV issues/programs lists for fifteen quarters were "not found."¹⁴ The Licensee further discloses that, with the exception of the third and fourth quarters of 2012, all TV issues/programs lists that were prepared were not placed into the Station's e-pif in a timely manner.

6. Section 73.3526 of the Rules requires each commercial broadcast licensee to maintain a public file containing information related to a station's operations. Section 73.3526(e)(11)(i) requires every commercial television licensee to place in its public file, on a quarterly basis, a TV issues/programs list which details programs that have provided the station's most significant treatment of community issues during the preceding three-month period and must include a brief narrative of the issue addressed, as well as the time, date, duration, and title of each program that addressed the issue. Copies must be retained until final action on the station's next license renewal application. The Commission intended TV issues/programs lists to be a "significant source of issue-responsive information"¹⁵ for use by the public, competitors, or the Commission when renewal of the station's license is at issue.¹⁶ The Commission also noted that in the context of a license renewal proceeding "the existence of the issues/programs list in the station's public file will give the Commission sufficient assurance that the station has met its issue-responsive programming responsibility during the past license term..."¹⁷

7. In 2012 the Commission adopted Section 73.3526(b) of the Rules, which requires licensees to upload elements of Stations' physical public file to an on-line Commission hosted website

¹⁴ The Licensee states that TV issues/programs lists for the following quarters were not found in its public file: third quarter 2005, all of 2006, all of 2007, second quarter 2008, third quarter 2008, fourth quarter 2009, first quarter 2010, first quarter 2011, and third quarter 2011. (i.e., a Station's e-pif).¹⁸ The Commission's e-pif requirement was implemented as a means to modernize the way that television broadcasters "inform the public about how they are serving their communities..."¹⁹ Broadcasters' e-pif requirements were phased in between August 2012 and February 2013. Beginning August 2, 2012, stations were required to post any document that would otherwise be placed in a station's public file, with limited exception, to their e-pif on a going-forward basis. By February 4, 2013, stations were required to upload to their e-pif those public file, with limited exceptions, documents that were already in their physical public file prior to August 2, 2012.²⁰ Under Section 73.3526(b)(2) of the Rules, copies of TV issues/programs lists must be placed in a station's e-pif.

8. The Licensee also states that it failed to file in a timely manner the Ancillary and Supplementary Services Reports in 2009, 2011 and 2013. Section 73.624(g) of the Rules requires commercial and noncommercial full power television licensees transmitting digitally to annually remit a fee of five percent of the gross revenues derived from all ancillary or supplementary services that are "feeable," as defined therein. It also requires that digital licensees file a report, no later than each December 1, stating whether or not they provided ancillary or supplementary services in the twelve months ending on the preceding September 30. According to the rule, a licensee's "[f]ailure to file regardless of revenues from ancillary or supplementary services or provision of such services may result in appropriate sanctions."

9. The Commission and R&F have negotiated the terms of the Consent Decree that terminates all investigations into the matters raised in this proceeding. As part of the Consent Decree, R&F has agreed to make a settlement payment of $14,500 to the U.S. Treasury, and to implement and maintain a Compliance Plan designed to ensure its future compliance with the children's programming requirements, and the Commission's public file and Ancillary and Supplementary Services Report and fee payment requirements, contained in the provisions of the Act and Rules noted above.

14. Termination of Investigation; Grant of Short-Term Renewal Application. In express reliance on the covenants and representations in this Consent Decree and to avoid further expenditure of public resources, the Commission agrees to terminate the Investigation. 15. Subsequent Investigations. Except as expressly provided in this Consent Decree, this Consent Decree shall not prevent the Commission from investigating new evidence of noncompliance by R&F with the Communications Laws. Nothing in this Consent Decree shall prevent the Commission or its delegated authority from adjudicating complaints or other adjudicatory pleadings filed against R&F for alleged violations of the Act or the Commission's rules or for any other type of alleged misconduct, regardless of when such misconduct took place. The Commission's adjudication of any such complaints or pleadings will be based solely on the record developed in that proceeding.
