ORDER

Issued: December 9, 2016

Released: December 9, 2016

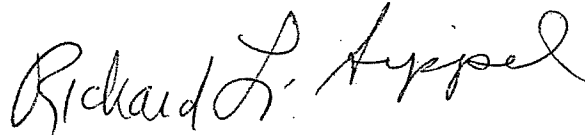

On August 9, 2016, the Enforcement Bureau (“Bureau”) filed a motion for summary decision. William L. Zawila, on behalf of himself, The Estate of Linda Ware d/b/a Lindsay Broadcasting, and The Estate of H.L. Charles d/b/a Ford City Broadcasting (collectively, “the Zawila parties”), filed an opposition on August 16, 2016.

On August 30, 2016, the Bureau filed a motion for leave to file a reply to the Zawila parties' opposition to the motion for summary decision, along with the proposed reply. On September 9, 2016, the Zawila parties filed an opposition to the Bureau's motion for leave to file a reply. On September 15, the Bureau filed a motion for leave to file a reply to Zawila's opposition to the Bureau's initial motion for leave, again along with the proposed reply. The pleading cycle is now completed, the Zawila parties failed to file any response to the Bureau's second motion, and in light of the significance of summary decision, it is in the public interest for the Presiding Judge to act on a complete record.

Accordingly, the Presiding Judge GRANTS both of the Bureau's motions to file replies, and will consider the replies attached to the Bureau's motions to be in the record. However, this ruling is without regard to the substance of the Bureau's replies. The weight to be given the replies will be determined in the order ruling on the motion for summary decision.

SO ORDERED.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION¹

Richard L. Sippel
Chief Administrative Law Judge
