FEDERAL-STATE JOINT BOARD ON JURISDICTIONAL SEPARATIONS SEEKS TO REFRESH RECORD ON ISSUES RELATED TO JURISDICTIONAL SEPARATIONS

CC Docket No. 80-286

Comment Date: May 24, 2017

Reply Comment Date: June 8, 2017

On March 30, 2010, the Federal-State Joint Board on Jurisdictional Separations (Joint Board) issued a Public Notice seeking comment on a proposal for an interim adjustment of separations allocation factors and category relationships pending comprehensive separations reform, as well as comment on issues related to comprehensive permanent separations reform.<sup>1</sup> More recently, on March 20, 2017, when the Commission adopted its Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking proposing a further eighteen-month extension of the separations freeze, the Commission stated that it expects to receive the Joint Board's recommendations for comprehensive separations reform by April 2018.<sup>2</sup>

Given these developments, the Joint Board seeks to refresh the record in this proceeding. Specifically, the Joint Board seeks comment on issues related to comprehensive permanent separations reform. Commenters are encouraged to submit reform proposals as part of their comments.

Interested parties may file comments and reply comments on or before the respective dates indicated above. Comments may be filed using the Commission's Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS). See Electronic Filing of Documents in Rulemaking Proceedings, 63 FR 24121 (1998).

- Electronic Filers: Comments may be filed electronically using the Internet by accessing the ECFS: <https://www.fcc.gov/ecfs/>.
- Paper Filers: Parties who choose to file by paper must file an original and one copy of each filing. If more than one docket or rulemaking number appears in the caption of this proceeding, filers must submit two additional copies for each additional docket or rulemaking number.

Filings can be sent by hand or messenger delivery, by commercial overnight courier, or by first-class or overnight U.S. Postal Service mail. All filings must be addressed to the Commission's Secretary, Office of the Secretary, Federal Communications Commission.

People with Disabilities: To request materials in accessible formats for people with disabilities (Braille, large print, electronic files, audio format), send an e-mail to fcc504@fcc.gov or call the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau at (202) 418-0530 (voice) or (202) 418-0432 (TTY).

The proceeding shall be treated as a “permit-but-disclose” proceeding in accordance with the Commission’s ex parte rules.<sup>3</sup> Persons making ex parte presentations must file a copy of any written presentation or a memorandum summarizing any oral presentation within two business days after the presentation (unless a different deadline applicable to the Sunshine period applies). Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentation must (1) list all persons attending or otherwise participating in the meeting at which the ex parte presentation was made, and (2) summarize all data presented and arguments made during the presentation. If the presentation consisted in whole or in part of the presentation of data or arguments already reflected in the presenter’s written comments, memoranda or other filings in the proceeding, the presenter may provide citations to such data or arguments in his or her prior comments, memoranda, or other filings (specifying the relevant page and/or paragraph numbers where such data or arguments can be found) in lieu of summarizing them in the memorandum. Documents shown or given to Commission staff during ex parte meetings are deemed to be written ex parte presentations and must be filed consistent with rule 1.1206(b). In proceedings governed by rule 1.49(f) or for which the Commission has made available a method of electronic filing, written ex parte presentations and memoranda summarizing oral ex parte presentations, and all attachments thereto, must be filed through the electronic comment filing system available for that proceeding, and must be filed in their native format (e.g., .doc, .xml, .ppt, searchable .pdf). Participants in this proceeding should familiarize themselves with the Commission’s ex parte rules.
