ORDER

Issued: September 12, 2019

Released: September 12, 2019

1. On September 6, 2019, the Presiding Judge in the above-captioned proceeding granted Entertainment Media Trust (EMT) additional time to respond to the Enforcement Bureau's First Set of Interrogatories by extending the due date from September 3, 2019, to today, September 12, 2019.¹ On September 9, 2019, Petitioner Mark Kern filed a request for production of documents from EMT with a due date of September 19, 2019.² Yesterday, September 11, 2019, EMT filed a motion to stay the proceeding or extend the time for submission of responses to the extant document requests and interrogatories in light of its filing for bankruptcy protection.³

2. The Presiding Judge will issue a ruling on EMT's most recent request once the other parties to this proceeding have had an opportunity to file responsive pleadings. Until the Presiding Judge does so, EMT is temporarily relieved of its duty to respond to the pending Bureau interrogatories, the Kern document production request, and any similar requests filed in the interim. If the requested stay is not ultimately granted, the Presiding Judge intends to establish a new due date for EMT to file its responses.

SO ORDERED.
